Southwestern College Professional Studies

COURSE SYLLABUS

I. Course Catalog Description

Learners study accounting information systems conceptions and applications. Topics include conceptual foundation of AIS, technology of information systems, and design processes and concepts. Emphasis is on developing learners' abilities to understand the processing of accounting data (with emphasis on the computer environment) and the controls that are necessary to ensure accuracy and reliability of the data processed by the accounting system.

II. Required and Supplementary Instructional Materials

Bodnar G., Hopwood W. (2013). Accounting information systems (11th ed.). Upper Saddle River, NJ: Prentice Hall

III. Course Delivery

There are two forms of course delivery Ground and Online:

Ground courses, or those that meet face-to-face on a weekly basis, also have an online component, which means some of the course content is delivered online. Southwestern College utilizes the Blackboard (Bb) learning management system.

Online courses typically contain a blend of synchronous (real-time) and asynchronous (not real-time) material. Depending on the course, you may be required at times to interact "live," which might mean attending a scheduled Collaborate session. You may also be required to view or listen to a lecture or other video on a specific date and time. Of course, if there are circumstances that prohibit you from logging in to a scheduled synchronous activity, an alternate assignment will be provided. Please refer to the Course at a Glance section which will note any synchronous activities.

IV. Learning Outcomes

Learning outcomes describe the knowledge, skills, values, and attitudes that learners gain as the result of a particular learning experience. Southwestern College Professional Studies has learning outcomes specific to each course and each undergraduate and graduate program of study, as well as institution-wide outcomes related to the mission and vision of the college. Outcomes can help learners and instructors focus on the big picture of the learning experience and can help inform potential employers about a graduate's knowledge and skills.

Upon successfully completing this course, the learner will be able to:

- Describe the goals of and uses for accounting information systems.
- Identify and use basic auditing flowchart symbols.
- Assess effectiveness of internal controls.
- Propose fraud prevention measures and techniques in a variety of situations.
- Distinguish between fraud prevention and detection.
- Compare and contrast different types of audit evidence.
- Explain information security, system design, and data management as they pertain to financial systems and auditing.

Illustrate risk assessment analysis using a variety of tools.

At the end of the course, learners may vary in their ability to achieve these outcomes. You are more likely to achieve these outcomes only if you attend class and/or online activities as required by the syllabus, complete the requirements for all assignments to the best of your ability, participate actively in class activities and group work as directed, and study diligently for exams.

V. Expectations

Learners can expect the instructor to:

- Respond to e-mail and phone contact attempts promptly (if you do not receive a response after 48 hours please follow-up as a technology glitch may have occurred)
- Substantially participate in weekly discussions/lecture
- Employ impartial and consistent grading practices
- Provide assignment grades and feedback in one week or less

XVI. Senior Capstone and Graduate Projects:

The majority of the programs offered by Southwestern College Professional Studies conclude with a Senior Capstone or Graduate Project. During the Capstone or Project course students will be required to retrieve papers, assignments and projects that they created during their entire program of study. For this reason it is imperative that students design a method of storing program course work for use during their final class at Southwestern College Professional Studies.
