Program Description

The Executive Quality Management graduate level certificate is designed to prepare the leader in an organization to manage an existing quality program or establish a new quality initiative. Emphasis is given to the behavioral and organizational culture issues that impact quality initiatives. Students will gain experience with the measurements and processes that can support quality programs in a real-world project. In addition, the certificate is designed to support the efforts of managers to lead through the necessary changes for establishing quality initiatives. Individuals completing the Graduate Certificate in Executive Quality Management at Southwestern College may apply all of these 15 credit hours earned toward a Master of Science degree in Management or a portion of the credit hours towards a Master of Business Administration or a Master of Science in Leadership.

Admission Requirements

Anyone interested in completing the Executive Quality Management Certificate may complete a Southwestern College Professional Studies Graduate Application for Admission. The five courses comprising the Executive Quality Management Certificate can be completed in eight months or less in convenient six-week classes with no prerequisites.
