

New Learner Scholarship Criteria

Southwestern College Professional Studies is dedicated to providing a quality education to adult learners. This scholarship is designed to help adult learners who do not have any financial assistance from an organization (excluding federal financial aid) to continue their educational goals.

Requirements/Selection Criteria

- Learners must be seeking their first baccalaureate degree.
- Learners must be new student to Southwestern College, complete all admission requirements and be admitted to Southwestern College Professional Studies.
- Learners must have earned a minimum of 6 college-level credit hours with at least a 2.0 GPA before applying for entrance into Southwestern College Professional Studies.
- Learners must submit a New Learner Scholarship application, a typed one-page personal statement (between 500-750 words) that includes your long term goals, unique experiences, financial need, or additional information you feel the committee should take into consideration, and copies of unofficial transcripts from all previously attended colleges.
- Learners who are eligible for tuition assistance from an employer/military/VA or other organization (not including federal financial aid) are not eligible to receive this scholarship.
- The New Learner Scholarship award will cover the tuition and technology fees for up to 4 credit hours (excluding books) and is applicable only to the first session of the learners' education at Southwestern College.
- The New Learner Scholarship award is non-renewable and can only be awarded once.
- Scholarships can be awarded up to eight times per year (every six week session).
